CHIMES • Volume thirteen

Nineteen hundred and sixty-eight

Pfeiffer College • Misenheimer, N. C.

Dedication . . .

We are glad he chose Pfeiffer College — it makes us glad we did. In the classroom, he makes literature come alive and grammar interesting. In the community, he concerns himself with the local public schools, the church, and the Civitan Club. On a committee, whether it be campaign fund raising or library, he contributes his best toward the betterment of Pfeiffer. As chairman of the Division of Language and Literature, he has been instrumental in the development of the new AIM program.

Because of his concern for Pfeiffer College and his unceasing devotion to the ideals of higher education and because amidst it all he never forgets the student, we proudly dedicate to Dr. J. Griffin Campbell the 1968 CHIMES.

Pfeiffer College . . . . . Introspect

Symbols . . . distinctness . . . re-soundings in the early dusk, the chimes . . . whitewashed benches, an alluring leisure . . . columns adorned with simple capitals . . . a Georgian pastoral scene with scatterings of the "Old South" . . . a sundial, seemingly impassable unless a superstitious finger ritualistically taps its face. Compact and reserved in isalation, yet expanding in a still traditional style, enlarging in a concrete way to cantain the vital resources ta universal knowledge. — This is the Pfeiffer campus.

The pöce set . . . on unawareness looming . . . "the invaders" proceed to rendezvous . . . mission unknown . . . destination obscure. A rood sign directs . . .
autos, transverse, one mode of invasion. Arrivol . . . relaxed exhousion . . . the corovons divide
. . . blocked lines guide . . . resting ploces for boiling mechnis-isms. Settled . . . forgetful . . . wrong zone . . . ticket time. Two stondord pieces of equipment . . .
legs, surely help. The modes of transportotion ore servants to mon. Now, mingling time has come.

Commencement . . . an awakening to venture further as Alice in Wonderland . . . "anxiefied" fear . . . "tis a puzzlement," now a convergence. The time has entered front stage and a hectic, frenzied air encompasses the whole. A "frustling" anticipation collides with vibrating ulcers. A recurring series of introductions, new faces with unmatchable names . . . situating and unloading . . . forms to address with last name, first name, middle initial . . . and a myriad of activities emerge. Adjustments are in the limelight.

Thinking . . . a remaining frontier of inexpressable complexity that can never be cloistered. "The mind is its own place" . . . expoundable . . . reserved . . . slowly nurtured . . . spontaneous . . . a contradictory phenomenon. Approaching a hazy horizon of learning, man delves into the "crackles of his mind." He desires escape; he aims. Fostered in tangible environments and in numerous undefinable realms, learning is a deepening of man's entire soul . . . expanding potentialities to serve . . . seeking true identity . . . emerging from thoughts and responses.

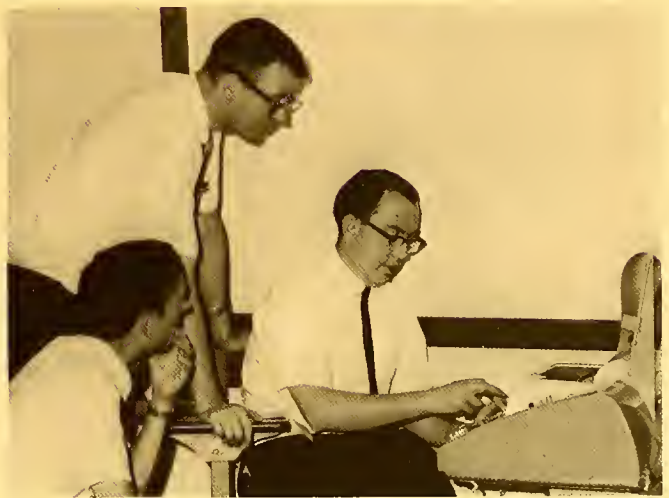

A part of every person . . .
"Our Town" . . . the cherished dwelling that holds the past in dusk and the future in sunrise. A heritage . . . a portrayal . . . people assuming roles. The stage enlightened . . . animated . . . delving perceptively and challenging. People, the actors provoking people, the on-lookers . . . void of assistance in props. Amateurs, compensating with a love to perform . . . a presentation unmasking all. The image in the mirror becomes clear.

Through sensitivity common bonds come into being . . . a kaleidoscope of interaction happens. Involvement causes an air of dialogue coupled with times of speechless communication. Endeavoring to be members one of another students become united.

Happenings emerging into a vibrant heritage . . . residents and alumni forming components . . . frivolity appearing in varied disguises . . . costumes and decorative side shows climaxing with judgments. The gaiety of participation meandering along the Curly Tail by-way . . . soccer in vogue . . . halftime colored with formalities for a chosen royalty. The second half ending with Pfeiffer defeated . . . Emmett Kelly faces are worn. But all this found on a rainy autumn day still leaves one with a pocket full of memories.

Responding . . . adapting . . . interacting . . . an earnest sensitivity required. Rejections and elations emerge accomplished by contributing jointly with an intertwining of life styles and personality traits. The over-under enigma is overcome by faculty and students approaching a common oneness.

"Beyond the fringe" . . . a loner pouses, peoce is drowing inwardly . . . a time for muddled thoughts to be collected in quiet meditation. Individuals sepo-roted from the moss . . . con-temploting, then activoting . . . ochieving personol dignity. The individool . . . despondent . . . overjoyed . . . apothetic . . . de-termined, with the entities burst-ing forth.

Publications and Communications . . .

Chimes

Pictures, ads, copy, contracts, night after night . . . Tranquilizers before every deadline . . . Decisions to make and to change. Will it fit? Is it relevant? Will the students like it? Clubs, sports, classes, dedication, THEME . . . and "It's Hell without money!" Hours borrowed from precious study time to produce the finished product. This is the spirit of the Chimes staff, wanting to publish a yearbook which will reflect the campus through its individual personalities.

Pfeiffer News

Misspelled words, grammatical errors, last minute typing, proof-reading . . . Mondays until 12:00 midnight . . . Tuesday afternoons at the printer's . . . Wrong case, pictures upside down. These are all a part of the chaos of publishing a weekly paper to bring the world to the Pfeiffer campus and to broaden interests. Characterized this year by long-winded letters to the editor, a new case of type, and a new format, the paper has as its motto, "We'll try anything once."

Sports Staff: Mike Stephens, Larry Halsey, Debbie Kriegner, and Johnny Morgan.

Judicial Board

Defense — prosecution . . . .
 major cases — minor cases . . . .
 Each treated as an individual case with concern for the welfare of the whole student body . . . Six student justices, three administrators to provide justice for everyone through the Student-Administrative Judicial Board. The Board handles cases involving major college policies and those referred to it by the MSGA and AWS Judicial Boards.

Association Of Women Students

"Big sisters" for freshman girls, changes in dorm rules and parental permission, backing up promises with action. The AWS strives to find unity in campus relations between the MSGA and AWS, freshmen and upperclassmen, and academic freedom and social freedom. There is also the desire to develop individual freedom and responsibility rather than to act as a disciplinary organization.

AWS Judicial Council: Jeanne Torrence; Dianne Hatley; Dean Becky Stasavich, Advisor; Pat Barton, Chairman; Miriam Nay; Cindy McAdams; and Joyce Williford, Secretary.

Golf

A thirty-foot putt . . . a long straight drive . . . the long walk down the fairway . . . in and out of sandtraps . . . and finally tawn in par. Coach Francis Essic has another victarious season with the Falcan linksmen.

Tennis

New caach, Warren Knapp, has same fine prospects . . . tough schedule demands a great deal of hard wark . . . outstanding matches demanstrate individual skills. Caach Knapp has a very successful recard in his freshman season as caach.

Intramurals

Terrific competition . . . a few unhappy moments . . . some very exciting games . . . students "letting off steam" through physical exertion. This year's intramurals program has enjoyed one of its most successful seasons with students and faculty both participating.

Cheerleaders

Leading the cheers with original routines . . . bringing Falcan spirit to a peak . . . halding pep rallies . . . wearing new mini-skirted uniforms. With their liveliness and verve the cheerleaders help contribute to the success of the callege teams.

Louise Lang; Daphne Hurd; Karen Merrell; Joan Sundby, Chief; Cindy McAdams; Debbie Kriegner; and Diane Bilin.

EPILOGUE

If we offend, it is with our good will.
That you should think, we come not to offend,
But with good will. To show our simple skill,
That is the true beginning of our end.
Consider then we come but in despite.
We do not come as minding to content you,
Our true intent is. All for your delight
We are not here. That you should here repent you,
The actors are of honest end by their show
You shall know all that you are like to know.
A Midsummer-Night's Dream
Act V: Scene 1
